Only Remaining Threat Near

Highway Patrolmen Wade To Near Norton.

Steadily rising waters of the Scioto river at Prospect today constituted the only threat remaining in the vicinity near Marion from the violent cloudbursts of Sunday night and Monday. At Bueyrus as the Sandusky river receded to normal, the city and surrounding territory reckoned its damage from flood and storm at $100,000.

All the approximately 100 families driven from their homes there were back today, busily cleaning away the thick layer of silt that the waters left. Most of the 100 homes had water covering the first floor. A foot deep.

Repair Storm Damage
Electric dealers did a thriving business yesterday and today repairing scores of washing machines which had been under water several hours. Automobile repair men likewise had many calls from motorists whose cars had stalled in the high water, which in some instances nearly covered the machines.

A large part of the $100,000 damage was caused by cyclonic storm in the northern part of Crawford county which tore down the Evangelical church at Lykens and brought in nearly 50 claims for windstorm damage to insurance agents.

At Prospect Dave Hord, government river observer, said the river has now passed flood stage and at 8 a. m. was at 11.05 feet. Flood stage is 10 feet. From 8 a. m. yesterday, when the river stood at 8.03 feet, it has risen steadily 3.02 feet.

BUDGET BATTLE TO BE DECIDED BY CONFEREES

House and Senate Group
Given Rival Bills Passed
by Each Chamber.

VARY ABOUT $3,000,000

Committee Expected To Report
Measure Monday Night;
Meanwhile Assembly Rests.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., June 23.—Ohio house and senate put a conference committee to work on their rival budget bills today and prepared to report until Monday night, when a report is due.

The house, in response to senate passage of a biennial appropriation measure sponsored by a "no new taxes" bloc, voted 77 to 39 late last night in favor of Gov. Martin L. Davey's financial program. This is at considerable variance with the senate group's plan.

The conference committee, in informal sessions, will attempt to reconcile differences of about $3,000,000 in the two bills, the senate's being the lower.

Kath, Kilpatrick and Rogers committee members are Representatives Al Kalb, Democrat of Ottawa, Bishop Kilpatrick, Democrat of Trumbull, and P. H. Rogers, Republican of Lorain.

Senate members probably will be William R. Fox, Democrat of Mercer, Horace W. Baggett, Democrat of Montgomery, and Fred Adams, Republican of Wood.

Kalb, chairman of the house finance committee, said that body had increased the governor's bill about $366,000, bringing it to approximately $59,000,000.

Kalb said the administration budget appropriated approximately $3,000,000 more for this biennium than was allocated for the last biennium. The chief increase, he said, were $1,300,000 for the welfare department and about $1,000,000 for the various state universities.

When the senate bill was brought up in the house, the administration bill was substituted for it by a vote of 80 to 41.

Opposing the substitution and insisting on passage of the senate bill, Republican Leader William M. McCulloch of Miami county declared the senate bill was a "material improvement" over other appropriation bills of which he had knowledge because it budgeted all state expenditures and not just part of them. Such budgeting, he said, gave the taxpayers true knowledge of state government expenses.

GIRL QUIZZED IN CULT TRIAL

Star Witness in Mann Act Case Says She Did Not Understand Intimacies.

CITES REFERENCE TO DEITY

Claims She Was Brought from Denver to Cultist's Home in California.

By The Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Pretty Delight Jewett, 17-year-old Denver, Colo., high school girl, faced cross-examination today on her charges that John W. Hunt, wealthy disciple of the Negro cult leader, Father Divine, betrayed her last Christmas eve.

At the federal government's star witness in the trial of Hunt and three other persons on Mann act charges, Miss Jewett testified she did not understand what she was doing when she was seduced by Hunt.

"Mr. Hunt told me I was to be the mother of the new redeemer of the world," she told Judge Leon Yankwich. "It was to be an immediate conception."

Brought from Denver
The girl said she was brought from Denver to Hunt's Beverly Hills home, and that in the party were H. B. Smith, Mrs. Agnes Gardner and Mrs. Elizabeth Peck.

The other defendants in the case, she said, Smith told her after her arrival in California she was to occupy Hunt's bedroom suite.

"On Christmas eve," Miss Jewett testified, "I found Mr. Hunt sleeping in the bed I had occupied the night before. I undressed in the dark and sat in a chair. He called to me and said: 'Come on to bed.' I said I was very comfortable where I was. I finally got into the other twin bed and Mr. Hunt talked for two hours about Father Divine. Finally, he came to my bed."

She said that Hunt later sent a telegram to Father Divine in New York, reading: "Whom God hath joined together, let no man put asunder, and signed him name and here."

"I was lost; I didn't understand all those things," Miss Jewett testified. "Mrs. Peters said the spirit did not move her to explain them."

Talk Strange Language
She said that Hunt and Mrs. Peters sometimes talked a language she could not understand, "with vowels all run together." She said they often talked of the crucifixion, resurrection and birth of Jesus Christ, and that the conversation upset her.

Miss Jewett said that after the long automobile drive from Colorado to California she reached Hunt's home at 2 a. m. and slept until 11 a. m. When she awoke, she said, there was a mirror and a place of candy on her pillow.

"Mr. Hunt asked me if I saw the

FASCISTS QUIT SETUP TO KEEP WAR ISOLATED

Angered by Refusal of Britain and France To Parade
Ships at Valencia.

WANTED TO SHOW MIGHT

Aimed as Warning After Repeated Attacks on Nazi and Italian Men-O'-War.

By The Associated Press
LONDON, June 23.—Germany and Italy quit today the international control scheme designed to stop the movement of foreign arms and fighters to the Spanish civil war.

They quit in angry reply to the refusal of Great Britain and France to join them in parading men of war before Valencia to warn the Spanish government: "Haul off our warships!"

Their concerted action left the non-intervention control scheme at a complete standstill, with no neutral patrol ships on the eastern coast of Spain.

Blockade Plans Rumored
In Berlin, there were unconfirmed rumors of a possible Italian-German blockade of this Spanish government coastline.

German warships—she has 12, including four submarines, in Spanish waters—steamed eastward into the Mediterranean, bound for an undisclosed place.

Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden of Great Britain, who once before succeeded in winning Germany and Italy back into the non-intervention block of 27 states, was informed of Germany's withdrawal from the control scheme because "there was no possibility of collaboration."

The withdrawal, it was made plain, was a direct result of the breakdown of four-power negotiations on Germany's demand for a naval demonstration off Valencia that would "impress" the Spanish government.

Illume Spaniards
Germany and Italy blame this Valencia government for attacks on the Italian naval vessel Bartolotta, the German battleship Deutschland and—just last week—the German cruiser Leipzig.

Here in London, foreign office spokesmen said the Germans and Italians had withdrawn only from the land and air non-intervention control scheme, not from the directing committee of non-intervention itself.

Informed sources, however, felt this was a technical distinction, since the land and sea patrol of neutral observers and warships which the committee has thrown about Spain is the foundation of its work.

They did, however, say that Italian-German retention of committee membership would permit reconsideration of their action, later on.

In Berlin, bitter Nazi attacks blaming "Great Britain for the breakdown of the negotiations were considered to forecast a formal Italian-German military alliance.

Claims Alliances Made
The government-dispatched newspaper, Berliner Tagblatt, headed its lead editorial: "The lines have been drawn."

It placed squarely on Great Britain the blame for failure of the non-intervention committee to satisfy German demands that the Valencia government be punished for alleged attempts to torpedo the Leipzig.

Italy gave full support to the German position, and it was to this line of British and French on one hand and Germany and Italy on the other that the Tagblatt's "the lines have been drawn" was considered to refer.

The postponement of Foreign Minister van Neurath's London visit has shown clearly the trick did not care for theories but wanted concerted action, which, however, seemed unbearable to London.

Firemen Carry Full Pay Request To City Council

Petition To Abandon 15 Per Cent Pay Cuts Approved by Unions, Eagles.

City firemen last night carried their request for full pay directly to council as they presented petitions signed by officials of various labor groups in the city. When the movement for restoration of 100 per cent pay was made public June 8 at a council meeting it had been decided to delay formal presentation of the petition until firemen's representatives, Mayor Smith and the council finance committee met.

The decision to present the petition to council was made yesterday by firemen who submitted them to H. C. Smith, council president, before council met.

Mr. Smith ordered the petitions read to council and then referred them to the finance committee for consideration. The committee will report back to council on its investigation of the merits of the petitions probably at the next council meeting, Mr. Smith said.

Mayor Smith said no meeting with firemen's representatives had been arranged since June 8 because the city has been unable thus far to compile figures showing the financial condition of the city. Fire Capt. O. A. Biffitt, spokesman for the firemen, said a meeting may be held with the finance committee before the next council meeting.

Supporters were signed by various labor groups and Buckeye Aerie No. 337 F. O. Eagles and point out that for 17 weeks firemen have cooperated with the city by accepting 85 per cent pay so that other obligations of the city might be met. The labor groups are affiliated with the Marion Central Labor Union.

The petitions state that financial conditions which necessitated the pay reductions are now alleviated and that payment of 100 per cent salaries for the whole of 1937 is possible.

KLOEB WILL CONFER WITH ROOSEVELT

Parley Planned After Senate
Confirms His Appointment to Ohio Judgeship.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 23.—Rep. Frank L. Kloeb of Collins, O., fresh from confirmation by the senate as federal district judge for northern Ohio, expected today to confer with President Roosevelt before leaving for home.

Kloeb said he hoped to talk to the president some time in the next few days and probably would leave Washington early next week to wind up his Collins law business. Roosevelt named the attorney, who had been in the senate since 1935, to succeed the late Judge George P. Hahn at Toledo.

The new member of the bench also planned to ask federal Judge M. G. Underwood of Columbus to aid him in learning the new routine.

Later he will return to Washington, close his office and resign as representative from the fourth Ohio district, from which he is serving his third term.

Unless Gov. Martin L. Davey calls a special election, Kloeb's congressional seat will remain vacant until the November, 1938, election. It was seen as a possibility that the governor would call an election to coincide with dates of Ohio municipal and township officer elections this fall.

STUDY CIO CHARGES

Alleged Discrimination in Discharge of Union Men, Coercion and Use of 'Armed Thugs' Cited.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, O., June 23.—President Roosevelt's federal mediation board renewed efforts today to arrange a settlement of the Great Lakes steel strike.

While strike-paralyzed mill cities in Ohio's Mahoning valley watched hopefully, under surveillance of 4,000 national guard troops, Charles P. Taft II, federal chairman, arranged conferences with executives of the four strike-involved independent steel companies—Republic, Bethlehem, Inland Steel and Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

President Roosevelt himself was keeping in close telephonic communication with principals in the controversy, he disclosed at a White House press conference.

NLRB Men Attend
Four representatives of the national labor relations board entered the picture today, and a fifth investigator was on his way from Washington.

Mark Lauer, member of the labor board's legal staff, said the group would proceed with "all haste" to gather data on the charges filed June 18 by John L. Lewis' CIO against the steel companies.

The charges included alleged discrimination in the discharge of union employees, coercion through the shutdown of a Canton, O., plant of Republic Steel, and alleged "collusion" with Sheriff Ralph E. Eber of Youngstown to interfere with picketing.

Strike Sector Quiet
Quiet reigned along the valley, where steel executives yesterday called off a projected "back-to-work" march at the personal behest of President Roosevelt.

Workers who have been beleaguered in Republic's Warren plant since the strike started four weeks ago, sleeping and eating in the mill, moved freely on the national guard troops enforcing a court injunction restraining the activities of strike pickets. The company said approximately 2,000 had remained in the plant.

The CIO claimed that a general sympathy strike of its members in Warren was spreading rapidly, and that 15,000 workers would be idle by tomorrow.

The move is in protest against a court injunction restraining picketing at the Republic Steel plant strike-bound since May 28.

It also is a sympathy protest against the evacuation today of Republic workers, who have been housed in the plant since the steel strike began. They were hurried out in automobiles, while fully armed police and Ohio national guardmen held back, murmuring crowds.

By mid-afternoon the union claimed 6,700 workers were out, including approximately 5,000 Republic workers already on strike.

Eight hundred and fifty men and women workers of the Sunlight Electric Co., a General Motors' plant, walked out today.

A deputy United States marshal and a postoffice inspector left Cleveland for Akron, O., today to obtain warrants charging "interference with the United States mails" against three Youngstown and three Warren men.

District Attorney Emerich B. Fred said the men stopped mail trucks at the Warren and Youngstown plants of Republic Steel, a misdemeanor involving a possible maximum sentence of six months and a $500 fine with costs.

Mail Trouble Continues
The senate postoffice committee in Washington is investigating shipment of mails to strike-bound plants; and the Republic Steel Corp. has brought a mandamus action against Postmaster General James A. Farley seeking to enforce the delivery of any packages—whether containing food and other living necessities or not—to its plants.

While the federal mediators pushed efforts for peace in Cleveland, Toledo's CIO president, of Republic Steel, and CIO Chairman Lewis both were in Washington.

Sen. Bridges, Republican, of New Hampshire, said he would ask Girdler whether the corporation has made an oral agreement with steel union representatives.

Girdler was summoned to tell his side of the steel strike to the senate committee tomorrow. In reply to charges made last week by Philip Murray, head of the United Workers Organizing Committee, Bridges said he had been informed that Republic Steel never had reached any pact with the union.

Payday Faced
With the cost of the strike estimated at $12,000,000 to date, paydays and smokeless stacks stood forth as silent but earnest

CANTON MAYOR HITS BACK AT GOVERNOR

Says "We Who Hold Public Office Should Be Honest With the Public."

By The Associated Press
CANTON, O., June 23—Mayor James Secombe in a letter to Gov. Martin L. Davey of Ohio today on steel strike violence wrote: "Has the time not come when we who hold public office should be honest with the public?"

The mayor responded to a letter which the governor said he sent to him last Saturday. The Ohio chief executive said unionists who were reported to have detained non-strikers at their headquarters after an attempt to run the picket lines at a Republic Steel plant here Friday should be charged with kidnapping.

Mayor Secombe said he had not received a copy of the letter, and knew nothing of it except what he read in the newspapers.

"I assume the absence of intentional discourtesy by you," he told Davey.

"You and I well know," said Mayor Secombe's letter, "that the CIO and its affiliates feel that they have the sympathy and active backing of the federal administration."

"Is there any doubt in your mind that the later intends to utilize all labor, whether desired by labor or industry, as part of a national social-economic program? There is none in mine."

The mayor asserted the alleged kidnappings did not occur in Canton's city limits. He said, "However, the victims were rescued by city police."

He added: "I am not a member of your political party (Davey is a Democrat, Secombe a Republican). The prosecuting attorney and the sheriff of this county, however, are of your party, and I suggest you give them the benefit of your advice upon law enforcement."

The letter continued: "I suggest that you reflect upon the fact that for the first time in American history, at least to my knowledge, the mail trucks of the government have been interfered with and without stern protest from the government."

"Surely it does not surprise you that included kidnapping should occur in this country where the violation of federal statute and interference with the mail is condoned."

Canton regarded with mixed feelings the concentration here of 200 Ohio national guardsmen under Gov. Martin L. Davey's order sending the guardsmen into steel strike areas.

"I did not ask for any troops, and did not think they were needed," said Mayor James Secombe.

"Now that they are here, however, I shall cooperate in every way possible."

Col. G. W. Connelly of Cleveland, national guard observer, said the troops were sent to Canton purely as a concentration unit to be moved wherever they are needed.

Frank A. Hardesty, sub-regional director of the CIO, cleared the troops were "unwanted."

FREIGHT MOVEMENT RESUMED AT WARREN

Army Rifles Guard Cnrs Sent Into Mills; Steel To Be Taken Out.

By The Associated Press
WARREN, O., June 23—Freight movements at the Republic Steel Co. Warren mill stopped for the last 10 days by strikers, began again this morning under the protection of national guard rifles and machine guns.

About 100 cars on Warren's three railroad lines, Pennsylvania, Erie, and Baltimore & Ohio, had moved into the plant by 8 o'clock.

C. R. Wheeler, Republic executive, said the cars contained merchandise, automobiles, and oil and grease. Arrangements were made to move an equal number of cars loaded with mill products out of the plant.

The 2,400 men in the plant, Wheeler said, would not attempt to go to their homes until they received assurances from civil and military authorities of "full protection."

Brig. General Ludwig S. Connelly, in command of the 500 troops sent to Warren county, and Sheriff Roy Hardman said armed patrols would protect anyone who wished to go in or out of the steel mill.

Reports circulated that movement of men would start during the day, although no concentrated march was planned.

STRIKE MEDIATORS PLAN NEW PARLEY

pleaders for settlement of the 28-day-old steel strike.

It was pay day at Bethlehem Steel's Cambria works in Johnstown, Pa., but there was no such payroll as when the big mills were running at their 15,000-men capacity; for the plant is closed by martial law, and pay due workers is comparatively small.

What checks there are, said a company representative, will be mailed during the week.

Much more serious, however, is the situation at Youngstown, O., where 25,000 men have earned no wages since May 26; and in the Chicago area, where Inland Steel's 13,000 workers can look forward to no more money until smoke pours again from the mills.

President Roosevelt's three mediators, aware of the great loss, sought to find a thread of compromise.

"There is hope," said Charles P. Taft II, chairman of the mediation board. "If there wasn't, I'd go home."

CIO leaders echoed his hopefulness with even greater enthusiasm, topped with Lewis' comment, "We're going to win," and with the statement of other strike leaders that "We'll have signed contracts with 'em almost any day now."

While the mediators struggled to end the strike, now costing nearly a million dollars a day, strikers and CIO sympathizers at Youngstown were turning out for simple funeral services for two of the men who died in Saturday night's three-hour battle with police. There was to be no demonstration.

The force of Ohio national guardsmen in the Mahoning valley (Youngstown area) will reach 4,500 men before tonight, said Maj. Gen. Gilson D. Light, in command.

Five Men at Each Gate

Five militiamen are stationed at each entrance of the picketed mills of Youngstown Steel & Tube Co. and Republic Steel. Other soldiers are assigned to patrol duty in the cities and counties adjacent to Gov. Davey's troop order, while still others are held in reserve.

There has been no sign of disorder in the valley since troops began pouring in early yesterday. Police and county authorities had arrested 17 persons up to early today on charges of suspicion or of carrying concealed weapons.

The city jail overflowed last night, and many prisoners had to be taken to the county jail.

The CIO through John Stevenson, organizer, complained of the "wholesale arrests."

"If they don't quit picking up men like this," he said, "we're going to increase our picket lines."

Stevenson charged that the prisoners are being held incommunicado. He had complained to military authorities, he added, against the special police stationed "at every street corner" and asked to have them disbanded.

Workers' Protected

Gov. Davey, in an order to national guardsmen last night, charged them to lend their services to "carry out the terms of the Warren common pleas court order granting the right of the workers of those mills to go to and from their homes without molestation."

"These workers have been self-interested at the plants since the strike began, being fed by food thrown in by the company."

Gov. Davey expressed the belief that the federal mediation board would "conclude within a few days." His original troop order Monday night specified that the soldiers should remain in the Mahoning valley during the period of mediation, provided it did not take too long.

Troops extended their jurisdiction today to the Canton-Massillon area. Approximately 2,300 men are at work in Republic's alloy steel division at Canton.

All Youngstown churches were open all day today for prayers for the "restoration of peace in the community."

Federal authorities in Cleveland planned to take some action today in charges of interference with mail for delivery to strike-picketed plants. They declined to indicate, however, what was contemplated.

Doctor of Laws Citation Also Given Chinese Official; Author Honored.

By The Associated Press
NEW HAVEN, June 23—Yale university conferred today its highest award, an honorary degree of doctor of laws, on Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Two others, among them China's minister of finance, Hsiang-shan Kung, and Stephen Vincent Benet, the author, received honorary degrees. In addition, the university conferred 1,117 degrees in courses at its 230th commencement exercises, the last for President James Howard Angell, who retired at the close of the academic year.

Like the American cabinet member, Dr. Kung, who 29 years ago received a master's degree at Yale, was made a doctor of laws. Benet, who was graduated from the university in 1919, was given the degree of doctor of letters.

Others given honorary degrees included Rt. Rev. Henry Wise Hubbard of Cincinnati, bishop of southern Ohio, doctor of divinity.

SECRET ACTION CITED IN VOTE FRAUD CASE

Prosecutor Refers to Two Sleeping in Courthouse and Changing Ballots.

By The Associated Press
IRONTON, O., June 23—A story of a night spent on pallets in the Lawrence county courthouse figured today in trial of four persons on charges of tampering with ballots in last November's county commissioner election.

In his opening statement to the jury of nine men and three women, Special Prosecutor Thomas A. Burke Jr., said he expected to show that P. A. Pratt and Dan C. Rapp gave out word that they were leaving the city. Instead, Burke said, they slept the Saturday night after the election in the office of Elizabeth Griffith, county clerk director, who also is accused.

Burke said he expected to show that on Sunday morning "Pratt's heart failed him and he sent Elizabeth Griffith and Rapp into the election board office to get the ballots, which then were marked in favor of the Republican candidate, William C. Dickson."

Burke contended that Dickson was informed of the plan in order that he could count certain precincts in a recount demand.

Wade Webb, another defendant, was assigned to guard the ballots, Burke charged. Pratt, Dickson, Webb and the Griffith women are on trial. Two other persons arrested in the same case will be tried later.

Dickson won the election over Democrat Harry Benton on the recount, then lost on a common pleas court order.

State Route 202 between Newmans and Prospect is covered and closed, the only state or federal road now closed in the county. At LaPorte the Scioto is dropping to normal and flood danger is apparently over.

At Waldo the Whetstone has receded but is still racing out of its banks. All roads near Waldo are now open. BUDGET BILL LEFT UP TO CONFEREES

Democrat of Monroe severely criticized the governor's efforts to obtain public support for his budget through pamphlets distributed to citizens by state employees. Christy said the governor's action was a "disgrace to the state."

Counting the governor's charge in the pamphlets that the senate bill would put the state house aqueduct on half rations, he said: "I am certain every taxpayer will be glad to chip in one nut to feed the aqueduct."

Rep. W. H. Whetstone, Democrat of Lawrence, criticized the senate bill because, he said, it reduced allocations for old age pensions by about $1,200,000, notwithstanding that there would be a shortage of about $10,000,000 for payment of pensions during the biennium, in amounts already allocated from liquor revenues.

Gov. Davey sent the legislature a message last night further explaining his budget position. He accounted for various increases over the previous biennium and declared that his program would result in a $2,000,000 surplus at the end of the two-year period.

Rep. Walter Becker, Democrat of Hamilton, introduced in the house a resolution asking that the governor's call for the present special session be extended to permit legislation dealing with labor troubles. It was not immediately acted upon.

DE MILLE OF MOVIES NAMED IN TAX QUIZ

Official Claims He Set Up Personal Corporation To Avoid Payments.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 23—Commissioner Guy T. Helvering of the internal revenue bureau told a congressional tax inquiry committee today that the government believed Cecil De Mille, movie producer, had made a "purposeful attempt to evade taxes" on his income through creation of a personal holding company.

Helvering testified that De Mille some time ago formed a corporation, which he completely dominated, consisting of himself, members of his family, and his attorney.

"This," he added, "was an incorporation of what may be called the 'earning personality' of Mr. De Mille."

"In other words, De Mille's earning power was almost the sole corporate asset."

"De Mille, the individual, then went to work for De Mille, the corporation, at a salary far less than he knew he could command as a director."

The corporation then sold De Mille's services to producing companies. The difference between Cecil De Mille's salary from his own corporation and his actual earnings as a motion picture director was put into the corporation."

To the government's claim that the accumulation of this surplus was unreasonable and for purposes of evading surtaxes, Helvering said, De Mille replied that his corporation was saving up money to go into the production of motion pictures at a later date.

Site for New Building Will Be Cleared Soon

R. T. Lewis Announces Plans for Disposing of Present Structure; Ward Co. Drafts Plans.

Plans moved ahead today for clearing the site for the new $125,000 Montgomery Ward building to be constructed at 205-211 West Center street this summer as R. T. Lewis, Marion real estate dealer owning the premises, announced the four one-story structures now at the location will be sold.

The buildings must be removed within two or three weeks after the public sale which will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the site.

Mr. Lewis received a letter this week from Montgomery Ward construction offices in Chicago stating that the plans and specifications for the building are being worked out and will be placed in the hands of contractors probably next month. Construction is tentatively scheduled to begin in August.

Contract for the work will be let by the Montgomery Ward company which is taking the entire responsibility for the construction, Mr. Lewis said. The company will occupy the land, owned by Mr. Lewis, on a 20-year lease with privilege of three 10-year renewals.

The buyers of the present buildings probably will move them to other locations and set them up for business, Mr. Lewis said. A residence in rear of the business buildings has already been torn down and removed by H. Biddaut. It was the J. F. McNeal residence, one of the oldest in the city.

The former occupants of the business places have either temporarily discontinued business or moved elsewhere. A tearoom operated by Mrs. Mary E. Riblet at 205 West Center street is now in a residence on South Main street. Dr. W. A. Dennis formerly at 207 West Center street has moved to the Palace theater building. Mr. Lewis, formerly at 209 West Center, now has offices in the Leontis building. W. L. Zuspan, insurance agent at 209 West Center street, has moved to the second house south of the Marion-Reserve Power Co. on South Main street. The Blossom Hat Shop, formerly at 211 West Center street, has discontinued business temporarily.

Results of a survey of the property, showing land levels, sewage connections, gas mains and property lines have been forwarded to the Montgomery Ward offices at Chicago, Mr. Lewis said.

The proposed structure will be three stories high, with a full basement, 65 by 120 feet, and will contain 40,000 square feet of floor space. The property is 68 feet wide and 275 feet deep. The 125 feet in the rear will be used as a parking space for customers and for loading and unloading.

P. K. Burns, manager of the store here, said Marion was selected for the new building because of its economic possibilities. The store is now located in a three-story building adjoining the Harding hotel and has been here for eight years.

$47,229 ON DEPOSIT IN SCHOOL THRIFT PROGRAM

Marion Has 2,600 Boys and Girls With School Savings Accounts. Annual Report of Superintendent Shows.

Thrift training in Marion schools has netted school children of the city the very substantial new egg of $47,229.

This amount is on deposit in the school savings bank to the credit of some 2,600 boys and girls who own school savings accounts, according to an annual report from the office of Supt. C. A. Hudson.

The sum represents the savings for the present school year, minus withdrawals, added to the accumulation of undistributed deposits of previous years.

Savings of Marion school children compare favorably with the total amount on deposit to the credit of school children in school savings banks throughout the country.

According to figures recently compiled by the American Bankers association, there are 2,750,293 school children in the United States who are regular weekly depositors in the school savings banks. They are enrolled in 9,070 school systems and the total amount to their credit is $30,337,269.

This summer, while the schools are closed, regular school savers are invited to take their savings and their bank pass books to the savings department of their bank, where any amount they wish to deposit will be entered in their school savings book account. Co# operation of parents is urged by school and bank officials in keeping alive their children's interest in thrift during the summer months while schools are closed.

Last Sept. 1 the Marion pupils deposited $33,097.66, or $1,913.53 less than the total on deposit May 26, 1931. During the summer most of the money withdrawn is used by depositors going away to college, according to those in charge of the banking.

The first week of school last September the deposits totaled $37,629, but withdrawals were $1,833.40, most of which went for the purchase of textbooks and clothes for school. From the first of September the weekly deposits increased a few dollars each week, totalling $19,111 on May 23. The total amount withdrawn during the 1930-31 school year was $13,960.26.

The Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

THE LOCK IN WEDLOCK. Marriage is seldom a gamble to a woman; it is something which she has been secretly planning for years. It is only a man who leaves it all to impulse and Lady Luck.

There always will be some people who will marry on a dare or for a lark, just as there always will be some people who will pull the trigger to prove that the gun isn't loaded.

At first, an ex-husband pays his alimony almost gladly—then reluctantly, then resentfully, and finally with all the enthusiasm of a man paying the back rent on an apartment he has vacated.

The world doesn't change much. A modern girl feels just as the girl of the Gay Nineties felt, that a lot of devoted boy friends are merely circumstantial evidence of her charm, and that the only incontrovertible proof of her powers is a husband—living, dead or divorced.

A woman can recall each man that she ever thought she loved, with a different sort of emotion; but a man mentally pours all his past loves together in the same mold, like ice-creams, and licks them away in the refrigerator of his memory.

Men aren't perfect, women aren't perfect, love isn't perfect and marriage is full of pitfalls and disillusionments; but if you hope to dodge all the hazards, why not just give up living and save yourself the effort?

A popular man may get awfully tired of being flattered, these days; but things have not yet reached the stage where he feels that he ought to slap a girl for kissing him.

Nothing so quickly destroys a girl's "it" and blows out all her personality as a post. And a post is as easy to see through as a telephone and as obvious as a black eye.

No man is a hero to the woman who puts the lotion on his sunburn.

CHOOSE MAHON CO. SITE. Only a small section of Marion county lies below the Greenville treaty line, so very little of the county was opened up to settlement by that treaty. A little jog in the eastern boundary, where it went off to the southwest, about 13 miles west of Charleston, indicates where that line lay.

The first person to enter lands in what is now Marion county north of the treaty line, was G. H. Griswold of Worthington. Griswold had been a teamster employed by the government and in transporting supplies had penetrated the lands along the Scioto river within the county. ONE of several attractive pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Betty Stauffer, a bride-elect of next Sunday, was the linen shower at which Miss Ruth Ellen Mounts was hostess last evening at her home at 1191 East Center street. Garden flowers decorated the room where the guests spent the evening playing euchre. An award for high score was won by Mrs. Henry R. Stauffer, and Mrs. May Adams was presented the galleon award.

The table centerpiece was a miniature bridal bouquet showered with streamers in Miss Stauffer's wedding colors of yellow, green, blue and peach to which were tied white hearts bearing clever verses directing her to her gifts. Also caught with the streamers were the guest favors of corsages marking places for 20. Lunch was served by Miss Stauffer, who will become the bride of John A. Gault at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church.

The Stars Say—

For Thursday, June 24

CONFLICTING CONDITIONS again predominate, according to the stellar operations. There are perplexing and baffling situations which may best be met by ingenuity, craft, subtlety or stratagem rather than straightforward measures. The mind will be found poised in this direction, being keen and shrewd. Crystallized conditions may have to be ruthlessly attacked and this may precipitate radical change, affecting definitely the future life. Illness and trouble with private correspondence may also figure in this.
Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of unusual and perplexing conditions, with support, obstacles and peculiar difficulties calling for much shrewd and cautious management. Subtlety and stratagem or diplomacy may bridge perilous moments, but radical change seems imperative both in plans and in behavior, as there are strong frictions on the intimate affairs. Private correspondence needs caution.
A child born on this day may be unusually talented and inquisitive, studious and profound but, at the same time, subtle, erratic and changeable. It may be difficult to understand and may have an adventurous career.
COUPLE TOO SHORT TO WED
Be sure they are too short, two dwarfs in a circus in Yugoslavia have been refused a license to marry. Belgrade reports say the man is two feet 11 inches and the woman two feet 6½ inches. The law in Yugoslavia is that candidates for marriage must be more than three feet three inches high if they wish to have a civil marriage ceremony.

Driver Arrested After Accident
Kenneth Gallant, 28, of near Agovia, was arrested by police at 6:40 o'clock this morning after he allegedly drove away from the scene of a minor collision. He was charged with reckless driving. Police Chief Marks said. The accident, according to police, occurred near 180 West Center street, when the car said to have been driven by Gallant struck a parked automobile. Gallant was taken into custody by officers who were near the scene at the time, when he stopped on South Main street, near the Ohio Associated Telephone Co. office.

No one was in the parked automobile at the time and police said that the license for the car had been issued to Cecil Fox of Marion. He was to be notified today. The car was only slightly damaged. Gallant was released early this morning on bond of $50 to appear later.

CIGARET FEES DISTRIBUTED

County Auditor Makes Settlement of $4,630 to State and Subdivisions.

Distribution of $4,630.76 in the annual cigarette license tax settlement was announced today by Clifford Swisher, bookkeeper in the office of County Auditor Harry V. Mount.

Cigarette licenses sold since May 24 totaled 166 to retailers and one to a wholesaler, the largest number of licenses ever sold here, Swisher said. A year ago 145 retail and two wholesale licenses were sold, with a collection of $4,359.13, or $271.63 under this year's collection.

The total collection includes short-term licenses, sold prior to May 24 at a reduction allowed by the state tax commission. The full-term licenses, at $25 each, yielded $4,150, the short-term licenses $372.76, transfers of licenses $8, and the wholesale license $109. The full-term licenses run from May 24, 1937 to May 23, 1938.

The net collection, after the county auditor's and treasurer's fees of $16.72 were paid into the county treasury, totaled $4,584.51. It was distributed to the state, county, and municipal and township governments. The state received one-half, or $2,292.27. The county's general fund received $1,146.14 and the other subdivisions shared according to the number of licenses sold in each. They shared as follows:

Marion city $650.79; Caldonia village $49.77; Green Camp village $12.58; LaTua village $13.31; Arcadia village $12.37; Prospect village $14.30; Waldo village $24.75; Morral village $10.18; township of Montgomery, $12.37; Grand Prairie $12.38; Prospect, Big Island, Scott, and Richland, each $8.19; Marion $18.57; Waldo $6.18; Tully $6.19 and Pleasant $5.35.

Ace Aviatrix Folds Wings To Care For Her Family

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, June 23—Amelia Earhart probably won't like it, but Louise Thaden, who has been flying around the country for years and letting a nurse take care of Billy and Patsy, has decided to settle down.

"A family is a lot more important than a so-called career," she announced over her scrambled eggs and bacon this morning.

"You can have a career, but what have you got when you get through?" She was sleepy. At 4 p. m. yesterday somebody telephoned her from Chicago that a ticket to the Braddock-Louis flight was waiting for her, and would she hop over? So she wheeled out her ship and ran over for the flight.

At 2:15 this morning she lifted her machine off the runway at Chicago and as she flew east she put to mulling over the situation. Things had gone far enough. The winner of last year's Bendis trophy race told herself. If there was an end, this was it.
